Public Libraries and the Affordable Care Act

Catherine Arnott Smith, PhD

March 23, 2015

Citations and URLs in order of appearance in the presentation

Portland, ME Public Library: http://calendar.mainetoday.com/venues/portland-public-library-main-branch

Quoted websites:

Aurora Public Library, Aurora, IL: http://www.aurorapubliclibrary.org/about-the-library/policies/reference-services-policy/

St. Louis Public Library, St. Louis, Missouri: http://www.slpl.org/slpl/library/article240097422.asp Haywood County Public Library, North Carolina:
http://haywoodlibrary.libguides.com/aca

Davie County Public Library, North Carolina:

Westerville Public Library, Westerville, OH:
http://www.westervillelibrary.org/aca

Useful resources for public libraries engaging with the Affordable Care Act

Consumer and Patient Health Information Services, Medical Library Association:
Affordable Care Act Resources for the Consumer Health Library
http://caphis.mlanet.org/chis/affordablecare.html

National Library of Medicine: MedlinePlus
Health Insurance

American Library Association:
http://www.ala.org/tools/affordable-care-act
http://www.ala.org/tools/affordable-care-act
http://www.ala.org/tools/atoz/health-information-libraries